Alan and Don,

I understand the need for some independence, but the fact is that it is not an independent position, it is not an external auditor. Don works for me and the District – that concept should not be misunderstood, even by the Erate inspectors. Now, if there are other reasons for not being at the Core Team meetings, such as it is not a good use of Don's time, then I will consider excluding him from the meeting. What do you think? Mike

In order for Don Smith to maintain an appearance of independence I would recommend that we excluded him from our core team. Thank you for considering this request.
